

VSA NEWS

Mufti day in aid of Christmas Bingo is tomorrow (Friday 23rd). Children can wear their own clothes in exchange for an item to go in our hampers such as bottles/cans of alcoholic/non-alcoholic drinks, boxes of chocolates or biscuits, cosmetic or 'smellies' gift sets or similar.

Christmas Family Bingo: It's only 7 sleeps until Bingo Night on Thursday 29th November! Everyone is welcome so please spread the word! Doors will open at six with the children's bingo games starting at 6:30pm. There will be a DVD for the children in Apollo Class while the adult games are taking place. Alongside the raffle and Bingo, we will also be serving hot food again (pasta dishes, hot dogs, pizza), snacks and cakes and mince pies.

Raffle Tickets: If you can't make Bingo, but would still like to be in with a chance to win one of our fantastic hampers we will be selling tickets tomorrow from 2:45pm outside the front playground.

Cake Sales: Voyager lass raised £43.00 in their cake sale last Friday, well done Voyager! No cake sales now until Friday 7th December when it will be the turn of Apollo Class.

Sausage Sizzle: Thank you to everyone who helped run the sizzle last Saturday or came along to support us. We raised a little under £210, despite a minor setback with the BBQ at the start!

As ever, we are very grateful for your continued support.
